FINANCIAL PLANNING SERVICES

If you receive personal advice from us, you will be provided with a personalised 'advice document' – i.e. a Statement of Advice (SoA) or Record of Advice (RoA), which will include the following:

- Summary of your current situation – where you are now
- Your goals and objectives – where you want to be
- Recommendations – a plan to assist you getting there
- Information – about any costs such as product costs, fees, commissions or other charges payable.

To make sure that our advice is appropriate to you we must make reasonable inquiries about your current financial situation and future needs. We need you to provide us with complete and accurate information about your personal objectives, financial situation and needs. You may elect not to provide us with certain information but if you do, you will need to consider the appropriateness of any advice provided to you before you act upon the advice. You should carefully read any warnings contained in your advice document.

If we recommend a particular investment or insurance product to you, we will provide you with the relevant product brochures such as Product Disclosure Statements (PDS) and/or Investor Directed Portfolio Service (IDPS) guides. The PDS / IPDS will give you all the necessary information to enable you to make an informed decision about your investment or whether to acquire a financial product, including information about the key benefits, risk and costs associated with the product. We encourage you to read these documents carefully and let us know if you have any questions.

You are under no obligation to act on our advice, but if you do decide to follow our recommendations, we will help you complete the necessary documents to get your financial strategy underway.

Who is responsible for the financial services provided?

Ed Leuenberger Pty Ltd T/as EWL Financial Planning is responsible for the financial services provided including the distribution of this Financial Services Guide (FSG).

We believe we have put in place compensation arrangements (via maintenance of professional indemnity insurance and adequate financial provision for any policy excess) that are adequate having regard to the size, nature and complexity of our business. We believe that these arrangements are sufficient for the purpose of meeting our compliance obligations under section 912B of the Corporations Act.

How can I give you instructions about my financial products?

You may tell us how you would like to give us instructions. For example, in writing, by telephone, fax or other means such as DocuSign, e-mail etc.

FEES AND CHARGES

All fees and charges will be discussed and agreed before we provide and implement our services. The level of fees will depend on the complexity and scale of the advice required and will always be agreed with you prior to proceeding. The fees specifically payable by you will be specified in a 'Terms of Engagement' letter or a 'Statement of Advice' or both.

Where financial product recommendations are made to you, details of the fees and charges for those products will be summarised in the Statement of Advice and contained in detail in the Product Disclosure Statements for most financial product issuers provided to you.

We also provide ongoing service packages which will also be agreed with you and are dependent on the level of service you elect to receive. A fee disclosure statement will be given to you each year if you choose to enter into an ongoing fee arrangement. It will outline the adviser service fees paid and the services you received in the preceding 12 months.

Fees can be deducted from your product or can be invoiced directly to you via a combination of methods. To pay for these fees, you have the option to pay the fees by:

- Directly to us after we issue an invoice
- Direct debit
- Direct credit
- A deduction from your superannuation or investment product

REMUNERATION OF ADVISERS?
